Pet Waste Clean-up Penalties

If a dog (except for leader dogs for the blind) discharges it's feces on property other than that of its owner, and the owner does not immediately remove such feces, a ticket can be issued. Please pick up after your dog (s)!

Feeding Wildlife

Spreading food of any kind in common areas is prohibited.

Spreading feed attracts nuisance critters.

Help Wanted

I am looking for someone VERY RELIABLE to clean up my car and the area around it when it snows from December to end of March.

I am willing to pay per month. The person does not have to do it every day. Which days to be decided.

If you are interested, please TEXT at 734-741-9010. Thank you!

IN THE GARDEN– Holiday Edition- December 2018 (Archived) By Lisa Joseph, Staff Horticulturist

HERE COMES WINTER!

Being stuck indoors during the frigid, blustery days of winter is no excuse to feel down in the dumps. I use the downtime to have my nose in gardening magazines and catalogs. I like to read about the up and coming new plants. And when spring rolls around? I feel revived and I'm ready to hit the ground running.

Joie de vivre!

HOMEMADE BATH SALTS!

There is nothing I like better than to soak in the tub. Only candles to light the room, jazz music softly playing, steamy water scented with bath salts... I am completely in my element. I feel relaxed and mellow after a warm bath. My project this year for DIY Holiday gifts is to make up batches of homemade bath salts. I will share with you my recipe- get ready for your house to smell sublime as you work!

LISA'S BATH SALTS

- * 2 cups Epsom Salts
- * 2 cups Kosher Salt
- * 1/2 cup Baking Soda
- * 2 Tablespoons Olive Oil (or Almond Oil)
- * 10 Drops Bergamot Essential Oil
- * 10 Drops Ginger Essential Oil
- * 20 Drops Lavender Essential Oil
- * 2 Drops Food Coloring for color if desired
- * Mix ingredients to combine well. Fill mason jars (or any pretty jars you may have around the house) with the finished Bath Salts.
